

Build Instant Credit for your Business

Traditionally, when you don't want to pay for kitchen equipment outright, you might consider a rental contract or a traditional loan. As a new business owner, it can be difficult to get loans for your business. This is especially true if your business doesn't have credit. Building good credit for a new business is essential, and leasing your own equipment allows you to do this while technically owning your own equipment. Making monthly payments allows you to build good credit which in turn allows you to take out more loans, which you might need for your business. Good credit is essential for any business!

Our lease-to-own programs help build your Paydex score used for commercial organizations in a way similar to how the FICO score is used for individuals.

Increasing your Paydex Score will help you expand in the future. You have probably found yourself personally guaranteeing for your entire business. By building credit for your business, you give yourself the opportunity to separate your personal credit from your business. Additionally you give your business easier access to wise purchasing in the future with strong credit!

So apply for one of our leases today, and start to financially establish yourself!

Paydex – “Is a term used by Dun and Bradstreet, for a numerical score granted to businesses as a credit score for the promptness of their payments to creditors. The Paydex score is used for commercial organizations in a manner similar to the way the FICO score is used for individuals.”
